

Meet the Nominees for Greater Irvine Chamber 2021 Women of Influence Awards

Tuesday, March 09, 2021

The Greater Irvine Chamber's 2021 Women of Influence virtual event to be live-streamed on Wednesday, March 24 at noon will recognize an outstanding woman in each of eight categories who have positively impacted their industries and the Orange County community.

AWARD CATEGORIES:

Entrepreneur is a woman who founded an organization and has excelled in strategy, operations, and finances. Achievement is measured by overall business success rather than business size.

Innovator is a woman for innovations she has initiated, developed, or contributed in extraordinary ways to the organization or industry she serves.

Executive is a woman who effectively leads all or some part of an organization in exemplary ways.

Advocate is a woman who positively influences government and decision-making bodies to achieve favorable outcomes on behalf of her industry.

Authentic Leader is a woman who has emerged as a leader in her field. She has demonstrated leadership through honest relationships with colleagues, provided and supported mentorship, and facilitated an organizational culture of openness.

Game Changer is a woman who has developed a concept, idea, or procedure that affects a significant shift in the current manner of doing or thinking about something. Her ideas have had a positive impact on her industry or the community.

Rising Star is an early-career woman, volunteer, intern, or student who demonstrates the potential to make a significant leadership impact in the future.

International Women's Day Award recognizes a woman whose history, contributions, and achievements have profoundly impacted the community.

MEET THE NOMINEES:

Rhonda Ducote, President, Apriem Advisors

